GLENDALÉ MAYOR FEATURES BELOVED CHARITY ON GLENDALÉ 11 T.V. SHOW

Glendale, Ariz. — The newest episode of “Glendale Today” features Mayor Jerry Weiers discussing his favorite charity, the Shriners International Organization. During the 30-minute show Weiers interviews Ed Stolze from the local El Zaribah Shriners about the impact the 141-year-old organization has on the community.

Weiers and Stolze review the history of the organization and the different charitable components that benefit children in need in Arizona via Shriners hospitals throughout the country. Shriners Hospitals for Children is a network of 22 hospitals providing orthopedic, burn, cleft palate and spinal cord injury care to children, including about 2,000 youngsters from Arizona and Mexico. Weiers has been a Shriner since 2007 and is a member of the El Zaribah Shriners Motorcycle Unit.

The new edition of “Glendale Today” debuts Friday, April 5 at 8 p.m. and can also be seen daily on Glendale 11, the city’s television station as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11.
